SATURDAY, APRIL 2, 1842.

FORT WILLIAM,
LEGISLATIVE DEPARTMENT,

THE 21ST MARCH, 1842.

The following Draft of a proposed Act was read in Council for the first time on the 21st March 1842.

ACT No. — OF 1842.

An Act concerning the acquirement and extinction of rights by prescription in the territories subject to the Government of the East India Company, without the local jurisdiction of Her Majesty's Courts, at Calcutta, Madras, and Bombay, and in the Straits Settlements; and for the limitation of Suits in the Courts of the East India Company.

Prescription.—Section I. It is hereby enacted, that subject to the exceptions hereinafter mentioned, a title by prescription shall be acquired in respect of property, moveable and immoveable, and hereditary offices, by uninterrupted possession, mediate or immediate, as proprietor, for six years, in the case of moveable property, and for twelve years in the case of immoveable property and hereditary offices; provided that if any other title be proved, the possession shall have been adverse thereto—and provided that nothing herein contained shall be construed to affect any right arising from possession of moveable property now recognized by Law.

Section II. And it is hereby enacted, that in the case of any benefits, liberties, or privileges, derived out of, or affecting any immoveable property which shall have been enjoyed without interruption for twelve years, a right to the enjoyment thereof against the owner of the property shall be acquired by prescription, subject to the exceptions hereinafter mentioned, unless such benefits, liberties, or privileges shall have been enjoyed by some consent or agreement expressly given or made for that purpose by some Deed or writing.

Section III. And it is hereby enacted, that when a right to any such benefits, liberties, or privileges, as aforesaid, whether acquired by prescription or otherwise, shall have been disused for twelve years, the right shall be extinguished.

Section IV. And it is hereby enacted, that when a party shall have been forcibly dispossessed of immoveable property, or shall have been prevented from enjoying some benefit, liberty or privilege, derived out of, or affecting immoveable property, and shall have applied within the time limited by any law now in force, or within one month, to the proper authority, for assistance to recover the possession or the use thereof, and shall have recovered the same—the period during which his possession or enjoyment was interrupted in such manner shall not be considered an interruption within the meaning of this Act.

Section V. And it is hereby enacted, that when the possession upon which a title by prescription is claimed shall have been acquired by the deprivation of another party who was previously in possession, or in opposition to a title which had accrued but upon which possession had not been taken, or having been taken had been previously interrupted, it shall be deemed adverse in respect of the party so deprived of possession, and of any one claiming in the same right, or in respect of the parties interested in the said title, as the case may be, from the time at which the possession actually commenced; and that when an adverse title shall have accrued after the possession was acquired, the possession shall be deemed adverse to the parties interested therein from the time at which such title accrued.

Section VI. And it is hereby enacted, that possession acquired by a bonâ fide purchaser for valuable consideration from a Trustee, or from a Depository or Mortgagee, shall be deemed adverse to the Mortgagor, or Depositor, or Beneficial Owner under the Trust, from the time of the acquisition by purchase.

Section VII. And it is hereby enacted, that a title by prescription shall be acquired by possession by or through a Depository or Mortgagee which shall have continued without interruption, for thirty years in the case of moveable property, and sixty years in the case of immoveable property, unless in the mean time an acknowledgment of the title of the Mortgagor or Depositor, or of his right of redemption, shall have been given to him or some person claiming his interest, in writing signed by the Mortgagee or Depository or the person claiming through him, in which case prescription shall not take effect until possession shall have been had without interruption for 30, or 60 years, as the property may be moveable or immoveable, from the date of such acknowledgment.

Section VIII. And it is hereby enacted, that in the case of a concealed fraud by which a party shall have been deprived of any property, the possession thereof shall not be deemed adverse to the party entitled until the time at which such fraud shall or with reasonable diligence might have been first known by him, except when it shall have been acquired by a bonâ fide purchaser for a valuable consideration, or when a party shall have succeeded to it by inheritance or devise: in the former case adverse possession shall be deemed to have commenced from the time that the party entitled was deprived of the property by means of such fraud—in the latter from the time of the succession—provided it shall not appear that the party to whom the possession devolved assisted in the commission of the fraud, or at the time he entered into possession knew, or had reason to believe that the fraud had been committed.

Section IX. And it is hereby enacted, that when a party having a right to any Estate or interest in reversion or remainder shall have become entitled to the same in possession by reason of any forfeiture or breach of condition, but shall have waived his action to recover thereupon, possession shall not be deemed adverse to him or any party claiming in the same right until the determination of the previous right.

Section X. And it is hereby enacted, that suits other than for property and rights to which the above rules are applicable shall not be admitted in the Courts of Judicature of the East India Company except as hereinafter provided, unless they are instituted respectively within the period specified in the following Section.

Section XI. First. Within one year from the time the cause of action arose.

Suits for penal damages or pecuniary penalties, or forfeitures, for the breach of any law or regulation.

Suits for damage for injury to the person and personal property or to the reputation.

Suits for debt, on account of wages of servants, artizans, and labourers; for hire of animals and vehicles; for retail supplies of victuals and articles of daily consumption; for tavern bills and bills for board and lodging, and for lodging only; for the rent of building; and on any other account subject by established custom to settlement by the month, or a shorter period.

Suits to alter or set aside summary decisions or orders of the ordinary Courts of Judicature.

Suits to alter or set aside summary awards by Collectors and other Officers of Revenue, in disputes regarding arrears and exactions of rent.

Suits founded on the right of pre-emption in cases to be governed by a law or usage which recognizes such right.

Second. Within six years from the time the cause of action arose.

All suits for debts and damages, upon contracts, or for wrongs, other than are described in Clause first of this Section; and for the enforcement of contracts.

Third. Within twelve years from the time the cause of action arose.

Suits for the recovery of Legacies.

Section XII. Provided, that suits against Trustees shall not be barred by any length of time.

Section XIII. And provided that whereby any law a shorter period is specially prescribed for the institution of a particular suit, the limitation so prescribed shall still be observed notwithstanding this Act.

Section XIV. 1st. And it is hereby enacted,—with respect to suits for the recovery of legacies and for debts that if an acknowledgment shall have been made by the party liable within the period of limitation applicable to the case, either by writing signed by him, or by part payment or part satisfaction on account of principal, or interest due thereon, then a new period of limitation shall be reckoned, according to the nature of the case from the date of such acknowledgment, or payment or satisfaction.

2d. Provided that if there be two or more parties liable no one of them shall be chargeable by reason only of a written acknowledgment made or signed by any other.

Section XV. And it is hereby enacted, that in suits for balances upon accounts current between Merchants and Traders who have had mutual dealings, the period of limitation shall be computed from the close of the year in the accounts of which there is the last entry indicating the continuance of mutual dealings; reckoning the year as it is reckoned in the accounts.

Section XVI. And it is hereby enacted, that in suits for damages for wrong done by a concealed fraud the cause of action shall be deemed to have first arisen at the time at which such fraud shall or with reasonable diligence might have been first known by the party wronged.

Section XVII. And it is hereby enacted, that in computing the periods of prescription specified in Sections I. and II. the time shall be excluded during which some party entitled to interrupt the possession or enjoyment shall have been under the disability of infancy or unsoundness of mind, or shall have been absent out of the Territories of the East India Company, and the contiguous Territories, and the Island of Ceylon, provided that no longer time than 18 years shall be excluded on account of any such disability, and no longer time than 5 years on account of such absence, and provided that the absence shall have been continuous from the time the title accrued.

Section XVIII. And it is hereby enacted, that in computing the period of prescription specified in Section I. in the case of moveable property the time shall be excluded during which the party in possession shall have been absent out of the Territories of the East India Company.

Section XIX. And it is hereby enacted, that in computing the periods of prescription specified in Sections I. and II. the time shall be excluded during which any suit brought bonâ fide to interrupt the possession shall have been pending and shall have been diligently prosecuted in any Court of Judicature which from defect of jurisdiction or other cause shall have been unable to decide upon it, or shall have passed a decision which shall have been annulled on appeal for any such cause.

Section XX. And it is hereby enacted, that the provision of Section III. shall not have effect when the party entitled to use the benefits, liberties or privileges therein referred to, shall have been under any of the disabilities specified in Section XVII., except as subject to the provisions contained in that Section.

Section XXI. And it is hereby enacted, that in computing the periods of limitation specified in Section XI. the time shall be excluded during which the claimant or any person through whom he claims shall have been under the disability of infancy or unsoundness of mind; provided in respect of the suits described in Clauses 2 or 3 of the said Section that no longer time than 18 years shall be so excluded; and in respect of the suits specified in Clause I. of the same Section, excepting suits for penal damages, that no longer time than 5 years shall be so excluded: provided further, that suits for penal damages shall never be admitted after the expiration of 1 year.

Section XXII. And it is hereby enacted, that in all suits described in Section XI. except suits for penal damages, when the claimant or the person through whom he claims shall have been absent out of the Territories of the East India Company, and the contiguous territories and the Island of Ceylon, at the time the cause of action arose, and shall have continued so absent, the time of such continued absence shall be excluded in computing the prescribed period of limitation, provided that no longer time than 5 years shall be so excluded.

Section XXIII. And it is hereby enacted, that in all suits described in Section XI. the time during which the defendant shall have been absent out of the Territories of the East India Company, shall be excluded in computing the prescribed period of limitation.

Section XXIV. And it is hereby enacted, that in computing the period of limitation applicable to any case the time shall be excluded, during which the claimant or the person through whom he claims shall have been engaged in prosecuting a suit upon the same cause of action against the same party or some party whom he represents, bona fide and with due diligence, in any Court of Judicature, which from defect of jurisdiction or other cause shall have been unable to decide upon it, or shall have passed a decision which on appeal shall have been annulled for any such cause.

Section XXV. And it is hereby enacted, that when by the provisions of this Act a person is barred from bringing a suit for the recovery of any legacy, debt, or damages, his right to the legacy, debt, or damages, for which a suit might have been brought by him, but for those provisions, shall be extinguished unless such right is secured by some mortgage, pledge or lien.

Section XXVI. And it is hereby enacted, that no complaint or information shall be proceeded upon by any Magistrate or Justice of the Peace against any person for any offence punishable by fine only, or by any Officer of Revenue against any person liable to any penalty or forfeiture, unless such complaint or information shall have been received within one year from the commission of the act charged, or within any shorter period that may be prescribed by any existing law for preferring such complaint or information.

Section XXVII. And it is hereby provided, that this Act shall not be construed to affect the provisions of Section X. Regulation XIX. 1793, extended to Cuttack by Section XXIV. Regulation XII. 1805, Section X. Regulation XLI. 1795, and Section VI. Regulation XXXI. 1803, extended to the Territories ceded by Dowlut Rao Scindiah and the Peishwah by Section XXI. Regulation VIII. 1805 of the Bengal Code.

Section XXVIII. And it is hereby provided, that this Act shall not extend to any public property or right, nor to any suits for the recovery of the public Revenue, or for any public claim whatever.

Section XXIX. And it is hereby enacted, that all suits that may be now pending or that may be instituted within the period of 6 months from the date of the passing of this Act shall be tried and determined as if this Act had not been passed.

Section XXX. And it is hereby enacted, that the provisions of this Act concerning the acquisition and extinction of rights shall not be of force in respect of any property situated or being within the local jurisdiction of Her Majesty's Supreme Courts at Calcutta, Madras and Bombay, and of the Recorder's Court in the Straits of Malacca, and that the Rules of limitation contained in this Act shall not be applied to any suits or actions in those Courts.

Ordered, that the Draft now read be published for general information.

Ordered, that the said Draft be reconsidered at the first meeting of the Legislative Council after the 21st day of June next.

FORT WILLIAM,

LEGISLATIVE DEPARTMENT,

THE 21ST MARCH, 1842.

The following Draft of a proposed Act was read in Council for the first time on the 21st March, 1842:

ACT No. — OF 1842.

An Act for extending the Statute Ch. XXI. 4th and 5th of Queen Victoria in certain cases to the Territories of the East India Company.

I. It is hereby enacted, that the Statute Ch. XXI. of the 4th and 5th years of the reign of Queen Victoria, entitled "An Act for rendering a Release as effectual for the conveyance of Freehold Estates as a Lease" and Release by the same parties," shall be extended to the territories of the East India Company from the 1st day of July next; provided always that this Act shall not be construed to affect any case which would not have been governed by the Law of England before the passing of the aforesaid Statute, if this Act had not passed.

An Act for rendering a Release as effectual for the conveyance of Freehold Estates as a Lease and Release by the same Parties.

"Whereas it is expedient to lessen the expense of conveying Freehold Estates: Be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, That every Deed or Instrument of Release of a Freehold Estate, or Deed or Instrument purporting or intended to be a Deed or Instrument of Release of a Freehold Estate, which shall be executed on or after the 15th day of May 1841, and shall be expressed to be made in pursuance of this Act, shall be as effectual for the purposes therein expressed, and shall take effect as a conveyance to uses or otherwise, and shall operate in all respects both at Law and Equity as if the releasing party or parties who shall have executed the same had also executed in due form a Deed or Instrument of Bargain and Sale or Lease for a year for giving effect to such Release, although no such Deed or Instrument of Bargain and Sale or Lease for a year shall be executed, provided that every such Deed or Instrument so taking effect under this Act shall be chargeable with the same amount of Stamp Duty as any Bargain and Sale or Lease for a year would have been chargeable with (except progressive Duty) if executed to give effect to such Deed or Instrument, in addition to the Stamp Duties which such Deed or Instrument shall be chargeable with as a Release or otherwise under any Act or Acts relating to Stamp Duties.

II. "And whereas many Deeds or Instruments of Bargain and Sale or Leases for a year, to give effect to Deeds or Instruments of Release of Freehold Estates heretofore executed, have been lost or mislaid; be it enacted, That where, in or by any Deed or Instrument of Release of Freehold Estates executed before the 15th day of May 1841, any Deed or Instrument of Bargain and Sale or Lease for a year for giving effect to such Deed or Instrument of Release shall be recited, or by any mention thereof in such Deed or Instrument of Release appear to have been made or executed, such recital or mention thereof shall be deemed and taken to be conclusive Evidence of the Deed or Instrument of Bargain and Sale or Lease for a year so recited or mentioned having been made and executed; and such Deed or Instrument of Release shall also have the like effect as if the same had been executed after the 15th day of May 1841, whether such Deed or Instrument of Bargain and Sale or Lease for a year shall or shall not have been lost or mislaid, or may or may not be produced: Provided always, that this Act shall not prejudice or affect any proceedings at Law or in Equity pending at the time of the passing of this Act, in which the validity of any Bargain and Sale or Lease for a year shall be in question between the party claiming under such Bargain and Sale or Lease for a year and the party claiming adversely thereto, and such Bargain and Sale or Lease for a year if the result of such proceedings shall invalidate the same, shall not be rendered valid by this Act.

III. And be it enacted, that in the construction of this Act the word "Freehold" shall have not only its usual signification, but shall extend to all Lands and Hereditaments for the conveyance of which, if this Act had not been passed, a Bargain and Sale or Lease for a year, as well as a Release, would have been used.

Ordered, that the Draft now read be published for general information.

Ordered, that the said Draft be re-considered at the first Meeting of the Legislative Council of India after the 21st day of June next.

The Hon'ble the Deputy Governor of Bengal is pleased to direct, that the following Instructions received with a letter from the Acting Colonial Secretary to His Excellency the Governor of the Cape of Good Hope, dated the 21st March last, be published for general information :

INSTRUCTIONS

For entering Table Bay by Night, by the Plan constructed on the Observations made by H. M. Ship LEVEN, November, 1825.

The Bearings mentioned in these Instructions are all by Compass, or magnetic.

1st. To enter Table Bay from the Northward, meaning to pass outside of Robben Island, a Ship should keep the Light to the Eastward of South—9 degrees East, or about South and by East, until she get soundings under 20 fathoms, at a little more than a mile from the Light House; she may then steer East South East, or East and by South, not to come under 10 or 12 fathoms until the Light bears West South West, she may then steer for the Anchorage, and may anchor in from 7 to 6 fathoms, as soon as the Lights are shutting in behind the Lion's Tail. —This track leads about a mile clear of danger on Green Point; but a Ship need not approach it so near, if she have, by seeing Robben Island, ascertained by its bearings, that she is clear of the Whale Rock, in which case she may round it at a greater distance from Green Point, if desirable, but the soundings in that case will not alone be a sure guide.

2d. In coming from the South-West, a Ship should not get less than 40 fathoms before the Light bears South East, or East South East, nor less than 20 fathoms before it bears South and by East, when the preceding directions may be followed.

From the Northward—inside of Robben Island—the Light should be kept about South West and by South, until a Ship have passed that Island; in doing which she may have some casts from 8 to 6 fathoms: and when on that course the Water deepens to 11 or 12 fathoms, she may steer for the Anchorage by the Plan as before directed.

In beating round Green Point, a Ship should never shoal her Water under 11 or 12 fathoms, until she have brought the Light to bear West South West, as before said.

In beating between Robben Island and the Main, to enter Table Bay, the soundings may be taken from the Island as it shoals to very regularly. In standing towards the Main, it appears prudent to tack at the first cast of the Lead after the Water shoalens.

In these directions it is taken for granted, that a Ship will always keep her Leads going.

By Day, or when the Shores or Surf can be seen, or indeed under any circumstances, the Plan ought to be a sufficient guide.

There are two Lights at the Light House, which are in one about South West and by West; these appear to be of no other use than to assure the Navigator which is the Light House, if he should see other Lights. We have seen the Lights clearly off deck at 16 miles distance; but they will not make clear as two Lights until within 6 or 7 miles to the Westward of them; and from the Northward one Light only will be seen.

(Signed) W. F. W. OWEN,

Captain of H. M. Ship Leven.

A Light House having been erected on the Mouille Point, with a Lenticular Light of the 4th class, for the better guidance of Vessels entering Table Bay during the Night, the following Instructions are appended to the Instructions by Capt. OWEN, R. N.

In standing in from the S. W. a Ship should not pass the Lights on Green Point nearer than a mile—nor should the course be altered from the Eastward to the Southward, with the intention of steering for the anchorage,—nor should the ship be brought into less than 14 or 15 fathoms water, before the Lights on Green Point bear S. W. by W. $\frac{1}{2}$ W. (they will then be in one,) when the Light on the Mouille Point will instantly be seen, (and not before,) bearing nearly S by W.—A Ship may then alter the course from the Eastward, and steer S. S. E. for the centre of the anchorage, and anchor whenever the Lights on Green Point are shut in (by Sand-hills near the Mouille) and the Light on the Mouille Point bears N. W. distant about a Mile, in from 6 to 8 fathoms water. Vessels of light draft of water may steer S. by E. $\frac{1}{2}$ E. for the anchorage, and anchor with the Mouille Light bearing N. W. by N. in from 4 to 5 fathoms of water.

The Ship's distance from the Shore, when the Light on the Mouille appears, may be readily ascertained by the bearings of the two Light Houses, and the distance between them, which is 1,215 yards—the perpendicular height of the Mouille Light above high water mark is 40 feet.

In coming in from the Northward (Inside Robben Island,) the Lights on Green Point will appear in one, (or nearly so,) and the Light on the Mouille Point will also be seen—the distance between the Light Houses being as above mentioned. The Directions by Capt. OWEN, and the appended Directions, will be a sufficient guide to the anchorage.

It is earnestly recommended to Strangers not to attempt to beat into Table Bay at night, in squally or thick weather.—The strictest attention should be paid to the Soundings, and the Leads kept constantly going. The Plan of the Bay by Capt. OWEN, (upon which the Instructions are founded,) should also be at hand for reference.

(Signed) J. BANCE, Port Captain.

By Command of His Excellency Sir GEO. T. NA-PIER, K. C. B., Governor, Vice-Admiral, and Commander in Chief of the Colony of the Cape of Good Hope and its Dependencies, &c. &c. &c.

(Signed) J. MOORE CRAIG,

Acting Secretary to Government.

N. B.—The Light on the Mouille Point will be lighted from and after the 1st Day of July next.

Cape Town, 1st March, 1842.

FORT WILLIAM,

SECRET DEPARTMENT, 8TH JUNE, 1842.

The Hon'ble the President in Council is pleased to direct the re-publication of the following Notification, with Copies of the Despatches therein mentioned.

NOTIFICATION.

SECRET DEPARTMENT, ALLAHABAD, 26TH MAY, 1842.

The Right Honorable the Governor General of India has been pleased to direct the publication of the annexed copies of the Despatches from Major General Pollock and Major General Sir Robert Sale, K. C. B.

(Copy)

From Major General POLLOCK, C. B.,

Commanding Troops West of Indus,

To T. H. MADDOCK, Esq.,

Secy. to Govt. Pol. Dept.

Dated Camp Jellalabad, April 19th, 1842.

SIR,
I have the honor to forward a letter from Major General Sir Robert Sale, K. C. B., detailing the progress of events during the long and perilous siege sustained by the Force under his command.

2nd. The gallantry of the Major General and his small Force are too well known to Government to require any commendations from me, but it is very pleasing to me to be the channel through which their many trials are brought to the notice of the Right Honorable the Governor General of India in Council.

I have had an opportunity of inspecting the works thrown up for their protection, by the indefatigable exertions of Sir R. Sale's Force, and my surprise at their strength and extent, has been fully equalled by my admiration of the excellent arrangements which must have pervaded all Departments, since after a siege (by greatly superior numbers) of upwards of five months duration, I find the Garrison in excellent health and spirits and in an admirable state of discipline, with a good supply of ammunition, ready and anxious to take the field, and most willing to advance on Cabool.

I have the honor to be, &c.,

(Signed) GEO. POLLOCK, Major General,
Comdg. Troops West of Indus.

*Camp near Jellalabad, }
April 19th, 1842.*

To T. H. MADDOCK, Esq.,

Secy. to Govt. Pol. Dept.

Dated Jellalabad, April 16th, 1842.

SIR,
The relief of this place having been at length effected by the victorious advance through the passes of the Khyber, of the Army under Major General Pollock, C. B., I conceive that I owe it to the troops who have so long formed the Garrison here to address to you a Report, which may convey some notion of their conflicts and the severity of their duties, labours, and privations. It has before been made known to Government, that I reached Gundamuck on the 30th of October 1841, under instructions from the authorities at Cabool, and there received intelligence of the breaking out of a terrific insurrection at the Afghan Capital on the 2nd November. My retracing my steps on that city was, in a military sense, impracticable, since the first inevitable sacrifice would have been of the lives of 300 sick and wounded, whom I could not have left in dépôt with the reasonable Irregulars at Gundamuck, whilst my cattle was unequal to the transport of my camp equipage, and my ammunition insufficient for protracted operations. In the position which I occupied, I could not absolutely command a day's provisions of even water, and should have been hemmed in on every side by hostile tribes, amounting to 30 or 40 thousand men, part of whom might have seized Jellalabad and reduced it to ashes, or, holding it, have left me no alternative but a disastrous retreat towards Peshawur. I therefore came to the resolution of anticipating any movement of this kind, and by possessing myself of this city establishing a point on which the Force at Cabool might retire if hardly pressed, and restoring a link in the chain of communication with our Provinces. Two marches brought me after a successful contest at Futtahabad to Jellalabad. My breaking up from Gundamuck was followed by the immediate defection of the Irregulars there, the destruction of the Cantonment, and a general rising of the Tribes. I found the walls of Jellalabad in a state which might have justified despair as to the possibility of defending them. The enceinte was far too extensive for my small Force, embracing a circumference of upwards of 2300 yards. Its tracing was vicious in the extreme; it had no parapet excepting for a few hundred yards, while there was not more than 2 feet high. Earth and rubbish had accumulated to such an extent about the ramparts, that there were roads in various directions across and over them into the country. There was a space of 400 yards together on which none of the Garrison could shew themselves, excepting at one spot; the population within was disaffected, and the whole enceinte was surrounded by ruined forts, walls, mosques, tombs, and gardens, from which a fire could be opened upon the defenders at 20 or 30 yards.

The Garrison took full possession of the town in such a state on the morning of the 15th of November, and in the course of the day, the place and detached hills by which on one side it is commanded, were surrounded and surmounted by a force of not fewer than 5000 Insurgents. A general attack on the 14th of November ridded us of these enemies, and a similar array brought against us fortnight afterwards, was dissipated by a second sally on the 1st of December. But we had since the town having in our possession not quite two days' provisions and corn for our men and horses, and beheld the arduous task before us of striving to render the works defensible, and collecting supplies for our Magazine from the midst of a fanatical and infuriated people with very narrow means in the way of treasure to purchase them. I appointed Captain Broadfoot, Shah Soojah's Sappers, Garrison Engineer, and Captain Abbott, of the Artillery, Commissary of Ordnance. Captain McGregor, Political Agent, gave me the aid of his local experience, and through his influence and measures our Dak communication with India was restored, and a great quantity of grain collected, whilst the unremitting and almost incredible labours of the troops aided by the zeal and science of Captain Broadfoot put the town in an efficient state of defence. Captain Abbott made the Artillery dispositions in the ablest manner, and used every exertion to add to and encourage our resources in the way of gun and musquet ammunition, in both of which we were deficient for the purposes of a siege. Lead and powder were procured in and about Jellalabad, and a quantity of cartridges discovered in an old magazine, and thus the troops completed to 200 rounds per man. It is to be remarked that I might in the second week of November have marched upon Pesh Bolak, relieved from investment the Corps of Jazalchees under Captain Ferris, and with it operated a doubtful retreat upon Peshawar. But I felt it to be my duty to give support to the last moment to our Troops, struggling against their numerous enemies at Cabool, and maintain for them a point on which to retreat gallantly if they met with reverse.

On the 9th of January, I was summoned by the leaders of the Afghan Rebellion to give up the place in fulfilment of a Convention entered into by the Political and Military Authorities at Cabool, but as I was fully assured of the bad faith of our enemies, I refused to do this, and on the 13th received the melancholy intelligence of the disastrous retreat of our Troops from the Capital, and their annihilation in the Ghilzie defiles by the rigours of the climate and the basest treachery on the part of those in whose promises they had confided. Almost at the same time it became known to us, that the Brigade of four Regiments marched to my succour from Hindoostan had been beaten in detail and forced to fall back upon Peshawur: my position was most critical, and I might, whilst our enemies were engaged in plundering the Force from Cabool, have attempted, and perhaps effected, though with heavy loss, a retreat across Khyber; but I resolved at all hazards on not relinquishing my grasp on the chief town of the Valley of Ningrahar, and the key of Eastern Afghanistan so long as I had reason to consider that our Government desired to retain it. The discouragements of my Garrison at this moment were very great, their duties most severe, their labours unceasing, and the most insidious endeavours made by the enemy to seduce the native portion of them from their allegiance. But their fidelity was unshaken, and their serenity amidst labours and privations unclouded. With reference, however, to the state of fanatical excitement and national antipathy which prevailed around us, I had been compelled as a measure of prudence to get rid, first of the Corps of Khyber Rangers, and next of the detachment of Jazalchees, and a few of the Afghan Sappers and a body of Hindoostanee Gunners, who had formerly been in the employment of Dost Mahomed Khan. Works had in the mean time been completed of which the annexed reports and plans of Captain Broadfoot contain ample details. Generally, I may state, they consisted in the destruction of an immense quantity of cover for the enemy, extending to the demolition of forts and old walls, filling up ravines and destroying gardens and cutting down groves, raising the parapets to 6 or 7 feet high, repairing and widening the ramparts, extending the bastions, retrenching three of the gates, covering the fourth with an outwork, and excavating a ditch 10 feet in depth and 12 feet in width round the whole of the walls; the place was thus secure against the attack of any Asiatic enemy, not provided with siege artillery.

But it pleased Providence on the 19th February, to remove in an instant this ground of confidence. A tremendous earthquake shook down all our parapets built up with so much labour, injured several of our bastions, cast to the ground all our guard houses, demolished a third of the town, made a considerable breach in the rampart of a curtain in the Peshawur face, and reduced the Cabool gate to a shapeless mass of ruins. It savours of romance but is a sober fact, that the city was thrown into alarm, within the space of little more than one month, by the repetition of full one hundred shocks of this terrific phenomenon of nature.

The Troops turned with indefatigable industry to the reparation of their walls, but at the moment of the great convulsion, Sirdhar Mahomed Akbar Khan, Burukzye, the assassin of the late Envoy and treacherous destroyer of the Cabool force, having collected a body of Troops, flushed with a success consummated by the vilest means, had advanced to Murkhail within 7 miles of our gates. He attacked our foraging parties with a large body of Horse on the 21st and 22d of February, and soon after establishing his Head Quarters to the westward 2 miles from the place, and a secondary camp to the eastward about one mile distant, invested the town and established a rigorous blockade. From that time up to the 7th of April, the reduced Garrison was engaged in a succession of skirmishes with the enemy, who, greatly superior in horse, perpetually insulted our walls by attacks and alerts, and compelled us daily to fight at disadvantage for forage for our cattle. The most remarkable of these affairs were those of the Cavalry under Lieutenant Mayne, commanding detachment Shah Soojah's 2nd Cavalry, and Jemadar Deena Singh, 5th Light Cavalry, already reported; a sally under Colonel Dennie, C. B., to defeat a suspected attempt of the enemy to drive a mine on the 11th of March; the repulse of an assault upon the transverse walls to the northward of the place on the 21th of the same month, by detachments under Captain Broadfoot, (who was severely wounded,) and Captain Fenwick, H. M.'s 13th Light Infantry; the capture of bullocks and sheep by Lieutenant Mayne on the 30th and 31st of January, and the seizure of large flocks of the latter, in the face of Mahomed Akbar's Army, by a force of Infantry under Captain Pattison, H. M.'s 13th Light Infantry, and of Cavalry under Captain Oldfield, on the 1st instant. These successes were crowned by Providence by the issue of the brilliant and decisive attack on the camp of the Sirdhar on the 7th instant.

I have to notice as a measure of defence, my having enrolled as a Provisional Battalion a large body of our camp followers, and armed them with pikes and other weapons. On all occasions of assault and sally these men were available to make a show upon our curtains, and I have pledged myself to them to recommend to Government, that they should enjoy all the pecuniary advantages of Native soldiers beyond the Indus. I at the same time held forth to the troops of Shah Soojah's Force, the expectation that they would be put, during the especial service, on the same footing with their comrades of the Bengal Army.

From the time that the Brigade threw itself into Jellalabad, the Native Troops have been on half, and the followers on quarter rations, and for many weeks they have been able to obtain little or nothing in the bazars to eke out this scanty provision. I will not mention as a privation the European Troops from the same period having been without their allowance of spirits, because I verily believe this circumstance and their constant employment have contributed to keep them in the highest health and the most remarkable state of discipline. Crime has been almost unknown amongst them, but they have felt severely, although they never murmured, the diminution of their quantity of animal food, and the total want of ghee, flour, tea, coffee, and sugar; these may seem small matters to those who read of them at a distance, but they are serious reductions in the scale of comfort of the hard working and fighting soldier in Asia. The Troops have also been greatly in arrears of pay, besides their severe duties, in heat and cold, wind and rain, on the guards of the gates and bastions. The Troops, Officers and men, British and Hindoostanee, of every arm, remained fully accoutred on their alarm posts every night from the 1st March to the 7th of April. The losses of Officers and men in carriage cattle, camp equipage and baggage, between Cabool and Jellalabad, were heavy, and their expenditure, during the siege and blockade, in obtaining articles of mere subsistence and necessity, has been exorbitant.

I feel assured that Major General Pollock will consider it a most pleasing duty to bring the series of labours, privations and conflicts, imperfectly sketched in the foregoing details, to the notice of the head of the Supreme Government in India, and through his Lordship to that of the Court of Directors and of our Sovereign, as a claim for public acknowledgment and substantial reimbursement and reward.

The report of Captain Broadfoot, in his capacity of Garrison Engineer, will meet with attentive perusal: I have already stated how much I have been indebted to his scientific attainments, as well as his distinguished activity and resolution during the siege. His fertility in resource obviated great difficulties in procuring iron, timber and charcoal, and to the foresight of his arrangements we owe our having had a very ample supply of tools. The Corps under his command performed, from Bootkhak, the duties equally of good sappers and bold light infantry soldiers, and the Afghan Huzaree and Eusifzya portion of it have been singularly faithful in time of general defection. The two Infantry Regiments under the lamented Colonel Dennie and Lieutenant Colonel Monteath, have vied with each other in the steady performance of the duties of that arm; and it would be impossible for me to discriminate in favour of either, in awarding praise to the Squadron 5th Light Cavalry under Captain Oldfield, and the Resallah 2d Shah Soojah's Cavalry under Lieutenant Mayne; Lieutenant Plowden of the former, has been distinguished on several occasions. The Artillery practice of No. 6 Light Field Battery has ever been excellent, and has been equalled by that of the Mountain Train. Captains Abbott and Backhouse, and Lieutenant Dawes have proved themselves excellent Officers of Ordnance. I have more than once brought it to notice that Captain MacGregor, Political Agent, has cheerfully rendered very able assistance in serving the guns in every crisis of pressing danger. Of his labours in his own department, I ought not perhaps to attempt to constitute myself a judge; but I know that they have been unremitting, and their result in obtaining for my Force supplies and information, and keeping up our communication with India and with Cabool, and securing for us Afghan co-operation, I may be allowed to appreciate and am bound to point out to Government.

The medical duties of the Garrison have been ably fulfilled by Surgeon Forsyth, Superintending Surgeon Shah Soojah's Force, and Assistant Surgeons Robertson and Barnes, H. M.'s 13th Light Infantry, Hare, 35th Regiment, and Brown, late in charge of the Irregulars.

Captain Mainwaring, Commissariat Officer to the Force, has been indefatigable in his efforts to keep the Garrison well supplied, and his arrangements in very difficult times have merited my highest praise. Captain Moorehouse, 35th Regiment Native Infantry, has satisfactorily discharged his duties as Brigade Quarter Master; he was severely wounded on the 7th instant.

It is gratifying to me to forward the opinion of my second in Command, Lieutenant Colonel Monteath, C. B., placed on record without solicitation, of the merits of the 13th Light Infantry, of which Corps I am proud of being a member: I fully concur in the sentiments which he expresses, and hope the distinctions which he recommends for the Officers of his own Corps will be accorded. The cheerful and persevering manner in which the Native soldiers laboured with the shovel, mattock and hand-barrow were as surprising, as their steadiness and courage in the field were conspicuous.

I have to acknowledge the zealous manner in which Brevet Major Frazer, Light Cavalry, Brevet Captain Gerard of the Corps of Jazaleches, Captain Burn and Lieutenant Hillersden of the Khyber Rangers, and Lieutenant Dawson, of the Janbazes, when their services could no longer be available with their Corps, volunteered to do duty with any Regiment in which they could be useful.

I must finally express my gratitude to Providence for having placed so gallant and devoted a Force under my command; in every way it has exceeded my most sanguine expectations, and I beg leave in the strongest manner to solicit the interposition of Major General Pollock, C. B., who has nobly laboured and fought to relieve it from its critical position in the midst of a hostile empire, in now committing it to the protection and favor of the Right Honorable the Governor General in Council, and through him of the Court of Directors and of our Sovereign.

I ask permission specially to recommend the following Officers for honorary distinctions or Brevet Rank, or both, viz.: Lieut. Col. Monteath, C. B., commanding 35th Regiment Native Infantry, now second in Command; Brevet Major Frazer, Light Cavalry, who acted as my Aid-de-camp on the 7th instant; Captain Abbott, Commandant of Artillery and Commissary of Ordnance; Captain Backhouse, commanding the Mountain Train and Senior Officer of the Shah's Troops with my Force; Captain Broadfoot, commanding Sappers and Garrison Engineer; Captain Oldfield, 5th Light Cavalry, Senior Officer of that arm; Captain Seaton, 35th Regiment Native Infantry, particularly recommended for his conduct on the 7th instant by Lieut. Colonel Monteath; Captain Younghusband of the same Regiment, who was distinguished with the advanced guard in the Khoord Cabool Pass and there severely wounded; Captain Burn, late commandant of the Khybur Rangers and doing duty with the 35th Regiment N. I.; Captain Wilkinson, on whom the command of the 13th Light Infantry devolved in the field on the fall of Colonel Dennie, C. B.; Captain Fenwick, H. M.'s 13th Light Infantry, whose highly deserving conduct in the Pass of Jugdulluk was noticed then in my dispatch; Captain Havelock, H. M.'s 13th Light Infantry, Persian Interpreter to Major Generals Elphinstone and Pollock and attached to me as Staff, and who commanded the right column in the final attack on Mahomed Akbar's Camp; and Captain Hamlet Wade, H. M.'s 13th Light Infantry, my Brigade Major, whose exertions in the action of the 7th, I have elsewhere highly commended. Both these latter Officers rendered most valuable services throughout the investment and siege. The Officers of all ranks and Soldiers of all arms, European and Native, I have likewise to represent as generally and individually deserving of reward and encouragement, and I hope that the Government will sanction my calling upon Commandants of Corps and Detachments to send in Rolls of such Native Officers as they may deem worthy of the Insignia of the Order of "Merit and of British India."

I have the honor to be, &c.

From Lieutenant Colonel J. MONTEATH,

Commanding 35th Regiment,

To Major General SIR R. SALE, K. C. B.,

Commanding in Garrison, Jellalabad.

Dated Jellalabad, 16th April, 1842.

SIR,

The exertions of the Garrison of Jellalabad beyond ordinary routine, having ceased since the decisive victory obtained over the enemy on the 7th instant, and now finally terminated by the arrival of the British Army under Major General Pollock, C. B., I trust I may not be considered as going beyond the limits of my proper duty in addressing you, to state as follows :

As doing but due justice on this occasion to Her Majesty's 13th Light Infantry might be looked upon as a highly colored record of the merits of your own Regiment, and seeing that no such partial bias can possibly be supposed to guide my feelings in the estimate I have formed of their deserts, I have pleasure in sincerely declaring, that their conduct, throughout the painful and perilous position in which they have so long been placed, has been such as fully to deserve the applause and admiration of their country, and the confidence and best consideration of our well beloved Sovereign.

On our throwing ourselves on the 12th of November last, into the old and ruined town of Jellalabad, without money, without food, and almost without protection, with a nation of highly excited and barbarous enemies in arms against us, our situation seemed as hopeless a one as British Troops were ever called upon to confront ; notwithstanding which the enemy was twice within twenty days attacked, and on both occasions defeated with signal success.

You yourself will doubtless detail the work performed by the Regiment, let it then be only my province, who have witnessed their exertions almost hourly during a period of five months, to record that their devoted perseverance and cheerfulness amidst all the gloom that surrounded them, after the destruction of their comrades of the Cabool Force, could not have been surpassed by any troops in the world ; and that after months of extreme toil, when an earthquake, such as man is not often in the habit of experiencing, in a moment left scarcely a vestige of their labour standing, their flying as they did with redoubled zeal to the work and completing it in ten days, (so that on the arrival of the enemy before Jellalabad, they declared that the calamity which had befallen the valley arose from nothing but English witchcraft ; it being the only place that had escaped uninjured :) was what none but British Soldiers could have performed, and what no price could have purchased, for it was the labour of the heart, work of all others most deserving of distinction and reward.

In regard to the Native Troops of all arms, I shall refrain from saying much for a reason which has in a measure induced me to address this letter to you, but as you have yourself been a daily witness of their conduct under every description of circumstance, you have it fully within your own power to say all, of which the Government they serve may very justly feel proud, and it may serve to shew as an example for imitation, what noble enthusiasm and zeal may be lighted up in their breasts by the high bearing and considerate conduct of determined British Officers.

I shall conclude by observing that we can now, Sir, proudly march forth from this Garrison with the enemy's standards in our hands, and their captured cannon to fire a salute, on delivering over the care of the honor of the British name, which we have had within our keeping for the last five months, pure and unspotted, and without a single circumstance existing to cast a breath upon its lustre.

The conduct of the Officers of the 35th Regiment generally, as well as of those doing duty with it throughout the siege, I am proud to say, has been such as well to deserve any reward or distinction that can be conferred upon them.

Of those holding the rank of Captain and above it, which enables Her Majesty to advance them a step, I could strongly recommend Captain Seaton, 35th Regiment; Captain Younghusband, 35th Regiment, (severely wounded;) Brevet Major Fraser, late 2nd Light Cavalry, and Captain Burn, 1st Regiment Native Infantry, both doing duty with the 35th Regiment.

Of the Native Officers of the 35th Regiment, I could also strongly recommend; that six should, as a compliment to the Regiment for its gallant and meritorious conduct, receive the Order of "Merit" and of "British India;"—viz.

Sahib Ram, Subadar,
Mavick Sing, Subadar,
Derriou Sing, Jemadar,
Rambuccus Tewarry, Jemadar, Hoolass Ram, Subadar, and Hurram Sing, Jemadar.

I have the honor to be, &c.

To Captain PONSONBY,
Assistant Adjutant General.

Dated Jellalabad, May 18, 1842.

SIR,

Observing by the Governor General's orders, that the dispatch published, is that sent off by me on the evening of the action of the 10th ultimo, hurriedly written in Conjee water, I have to request that the Major General will do me the favor to express to the Right Hon'ble the Governor General, how gratifying it will be to me, to have my amended dispatch (sent to you the day after the action) published in Orders, as that now before the public contains many slight inaccuracies, caused I fancy by the writing not coming distinctly out, on the application of the Iodine, and the names of Officers who distinguished themselves on that day, were unavoidably left out of my first dispatch.

I take the liberty to enclose a triplicate of my Dispatch, fearing the duplicate may have miscarried.

I have, &c.,

TO CAPTAIN PONSONBY,

Asst. Adjt. General.

SIR,—Information was on the evening of the 8th instant brought into this place in the most positive and circumstantial terms by spies from the enemy's camp, to the effect that the Force under Major General Pollock, C. B., had met with a reverse in the Khyber, retraced its steps towards Peshawur, and about 10 A.M. on the 6th, a feu de joie and salute of Artillery were fired by Mahomed Akbar, which were said to be in honor of the same event. It was on the same day and through similar channels announced to me that the Afghans were sending additional reinforcements to aid in defending their frontier passes. Although I could not wholly depend on these statements which were improbable in themselves, and accompanied by counter reports of a new Revolution at Cabool, which was assigned by some as the cause of the rejoicing and of the defeat of the Ghazees in Khyber, and by an account of the intended and even actual retreat of the Sirdar into Lughman, I adopted, on a full consideration of the various circumstances and rumours, the resolution of anticipating the last mentioned event, if it had not come to pass, by a general attack on the Afghan Camp, in the hope of relieving this place from blockade, and facilitating General Pollock's advance to our succour. I accordingly gave directions to form three columns of Infantry, the centre consisting of H. M.'s 13th Light Infantry, mustering 500 Bayonets, under Colonel Dennie, C. B.; the left one also 500 strong, under Lieutenant Colonel Monteath, C. B., and the right composed of one Company 13th Light Infantry and one of the 35th N. I., and the Detachment of Sappers under Lieutenant Orr (the severity of Captain Broadfoot's wound still rendering him non-effective) the whole amounting to 360 men, commanded by Captain Havelock, H. M.'s 13th L. I. These were to be supported by the fire of the guns of No. 6 Light Field Battery under Captain Abbott, to which Captain Backhouse, S. S. Artillery, was attached, and by the whole of my small Cavalry Force under Captain Oldfield and Lieutenant Mayne. The Troops issued from the Cabool and Peshawur Gates at daylight this morning. So far from the Sirdar having made any dispositions to avoid the encounter, his whole force, not falling short in all of six thousand men, was formed in order of battle for the defence of his Camp, its right resting on a Fort, and its left on the Cabool River, and even the ruined works within eight hundred yards of the place recently repaired were filled with Ghilzie Marksmen, evidently prepared for a stout resistance. The attack was led by the Skirmishers and column under Captain Havelock, which drove the enemy in a most satisfactory manner, from the extreme left of his advanced line of works, which it pierced, and proceeded to advanced into the plain, whilst the central column directed its efforts against a square Fort on the same base, the defence of which was obstinately maintained. With the deepest regret I have to record that, whilst nobly leading his Regiment to the assault, Col. Dennie received a shot through the body, which shortly after proved fatal. The rear of the work having been finally aimed by passing to its left, I gave orders for a combined attack on the enemy's camp, it was in every way brilliant and successful. The Artillery advanced at the gallop, and directed a heavy fire upon the Afghan centre, whilst two of the columns of Infantry penetrated his line near the same point, and the third forced back its left from its support on the river, into the stream of which some of his horse and foot were driven. The Afghans made repeated attempts to check our advance by a smart fire of musquetry, by throwing forward heavy bodies of horse, which twice threatened the Detachments of Foot under Captain Havelock, and by opening upon us three guns from a Battery screened by a garden wall, and said to have been served under the personal superintendence of the Sirdar. But in a short time they were dislodged from every point of their position, their cannon taken and their Camp involved in a general conflagration. The battle was over, and the enemy in full retreat in the direction of Lughman by, about 7 A. M. We have made ourselves masters of two Cavalry Standards, recaptured 4 Guns lost by the Cabool and Gundamuck Forces, the restoration of which to our Government is matter of much honest exultation amongst our Troops, seized and destroyed a great quantity of Materiel and Ordnance Stores, and burnt the whole of the enemy's Tents. In short, the defeat of Mahomed Akbar in open field, by the Troops whom he had boasted of blockading, has been complete and signal.

The fall of an Officer, so distinguished as Colonel Dennie, will be felt as a public calamity. Lamenting it on every account, I must yet share with his country, his Regiment, and his friends, in the consolation afforded by the reflection that he was killed whilst most gallantly performing his duty. I have to express my entire satisfaction with the conduct in this action of Lieutenant Colonel Monteath, C. B., Commanding one of the two Infantry columns under my own eye, and of Captain Wilkinson, H. M.'s 13th Light Infantry, on whom the charge of the other devolved on the death of his Lieutenant Colonel, of Captain Oldfield and Lieutenant Mayne who led the Cavalry, and of Captains Abbott and Backhouse, and Lieutenant Dawes, Artillery. The able and judicious manner in which Captain Havelock, H. M.'s 13th Light Infantry, moved the Force under his Command, which acted on a line sufficiently distant to render its manœuvres independent of my immediate control, demands my particular and especial commendation.

My acknowledgments are also due to my Brigade Major Captain Hamlet Wade, H. M.'s 13th Light Infantry, whose exertions were on this day, as they have ever been, most meritorious; to Major Frazer, Light Cavalry, who acted as my Aide-de-camp, and to Captain Mainwaring, Commissariat Officer with the Force, who was present on and active in the field; Captain Margregor, Political Agent, handsomely offered his services with No. 6 Light Field Battery, and was most useful in serving the guns. I enclosed Returns of Killed and Wounded, and of Ordnance and Stores captured. Lieutenant and Adjutant Wood, H. M.'s 13th Light Infantry, made a dash at one of the enemy, and in cutting him down his charger was so severely injured, as to have since been destroyed. Captain Havelock reports in the most favourable manner the gallant conduct throughout the day of Lieutenant Cox, H. M. 13th Light Infantry, and he was the first of the party which captured them to seize two of the enemy's cannon.

It will be seen from the preceding details that the force employed in this successful enterprise, amounted to about eighteen hundred men of all arms. The safety of the place was entrusted during the action to the ordinary guards of its gates and our Provisional Battalion of Followers of every description, armed with pikes and various other weapons, who manned the curtains, and made a respectable show of defence, as they had done on all occasions of attack on the walls. Captain Pattison, H. M.'s 13th Light Infantry, was left in charge of this diminished garrison. A sally was made from the Cabool Gate towards the conclusion of the engagement by Lieutenant Wade of H. M.'s 13th Light Infantry into the Fort, before which Colonel Dennie had fallen, and which the enemy were observed to be abandoning. All that it contained was set on fire, and some of its defenders intercepted and killed.

The enemy's loss during the day must have been severe. The field of battle was strewed with the bodies of men and horses, and the richness of the trappings of some of the latter, seemed to attest that persons of distinction had been among the casualties.

Lieutenant Colonel Monteath has noticed to me on high terms the gallant behaviour of Captain Seaton, 35th Regiment N. I., when in command of the Skirmishers of that Corps, and informed me of the fact of his having been the captor of a Howitzer from the enemy.

We have information to the fact that the following Chiefs were present and took part in the action, viz.

Sirdar Mahomed Akbar Khan in person, Umeer Khan, Chief of Bajour, Uzeez Khan, Ghool Mahomed Khan, Mahomed Shah Khan, Burukut Khan, Azad Khan and Shookoor Khan, principal men amongst the Eastern Ghilzies; Myan Abdool Rahman of Kama, Meer Ufzul Khan of Ghundaghur, Syud Oosman, and Oosmah Khan, Mohmunda, Syud Mahomed, son of the King of Kooner, Syud Hashim, the deposed ruler of the same place, Myah Hyder, Chief of Kivat, Mohumud Jan Khan, head of the Sungo Serai, Abdool Ghuffoor Khan, Achukzye, nephew of Abdool Khan of the same Tribe, and Abdool Ghuffoor Khan, Barukzye.

NOTIFICATION.

SECRET DEPARTMENT, ALLAHABAD, THE 15TH JUNE, 1842.

The Right Honorable the Governor General of India is pleased to publish for general information the following despatch dated 19th March, from Lieutenant General Sir Hugh Gough, G. C. B., Commanding the Expeditionary Force in China.

By order of the Right Hon'ble the Governor General,

T. H. MADDOCK,

From Lieut. Genl. Sir HUGH GOUGH, G. C. B.,

Comdg. Expedy. Land Force, China.

To the Right Hon'ble the Earl of AUCKLAND, G. C. B.,

&c. &c. &c.

My Lord,

I have the gratification to inform your Lordship of the total discomfiture, and precipitate retreat of that portion of Commissioner Yih-King's force, which had been sent forward to exterminate us, and I feel most thankful to say, with wonderfully small loss on our part.

My letter of the 11th will have informed your Lordship of the attacks on this City, and Chinhae, on the night of the 9th and morning of the 10th. I deemed it right promptly to follow up these successful repulses, taking the attacking columns in detail, and understanding that General Yu-poo-yun was advancing from Funghwa with from 6 to 7,000 men, I moved out to meet him on the 13th, with 600 men of the 18th and 49th Regiments, and Madras Artillery, with 2 guns and 50 Sappers, flanked by the Sesostris, Steamer, which moved up the river parallel with our route, having on board three Companies of the 26th, and a small body of Seamen and Marines. Until I reached the village Litso, about 7 miles from hence, where I understood the enemy had been posted on the 12th, I could obtain no satisfactory information of his movements; but I had the mortification to find on my arrival, that the Chinese had retreated over the hills the preceding night apparently moving on Shan Hing.

Having thus got rid of this column, although not in the way I could have wished, and being joined by Sir William Parker, who on his arrival from Ta-Shan, with the zeal for which he is so conspicuous, at once followed me up the river with the two small Steamers, bringing with him 250 Marines and a party of Seamen, I determined upon moving on Teekee, where I was informed, that the Chinese were in considerable force under Generals Twan-Yung, Yang and Choo. It was reported that they had two intrenched Camps on the Segao hills, about half a mile North of Tse-kee; that several guns had been placed on the walls, and at the gateways, and large stores of provisions laid up for the army in the City, and that 7 miles North East of these encampments, another force of from 5 to 6,000 men, under Commissioner Wun, with the military chest, was posted in a fortified camp in the hills at the Changki pass.

The necessary arrangements having been made with Rear Admiral Sir William Parker, the troops named in the margin were all embarked by eight o'clock on the morning of the 15th, on board the Steamers, Queen, Nemesis and Phlegethon. Sir William Parker placed at my disposal 350 Seamen and Marines, making up about 1,000 bayonets. At 12 o'clock this force was landed about 4 miles from Tsekee, from whence we had a perfect view of the enemy's encampments, and I immediately pushed forward on the City. I feel it right here to observe, that Sir William Parker accompanied me throughout the operations I am about to detail, and from his sound judgment and excellent arrangements I received the most valuable assistance.

Upon our approaching Tsekee and occupying a hill, which commands the Southern face of the walls, and the South gate, the Chinese fired all the guns and ginjals they had for the defence of this gate, but with so little effect, and at so great a distance, that it led me to believe that they (most unaccountably) did not propose to defend the City; and I was confirmed in this conclusion by observing that the ramparts nearest us were unoccupied, while the Segao hills at the opposite side of the town, on which were their encampments, appeared crowded with troops. Lieutenant-Colonel Montgomerie having with his usual promptitude brought up his guns, I determined at once to take the City by storm, pass through to the North gate, there reunite my force, and carry the enemy's encampments. I was led to this line of operation by the conclusion before mentioned that the Chinese did not mean to defend the City, as well as with a view to expedite the attack on the heights, as it would otherwise have been necessary (to provide for the possible case of the enemy's being in force within the walls) to make a detour out of range through the paddy fields, but my principal object was, to prevent the enemy from falling back on the City, when driven from the hills. In furtherance of these views, I directed the Naval Brigade, with a party of Sappers, covered by the guns and the Madras Rifles, if opposed, to escalate the walls in my front, assemble on the ramparts and move along them to the North gate. The 49th I instructed to move on the South gate, blow it open, and join the Naval Brigade on the ramparts. I had previously ordered the 18th to dislodge a body of the enemy that occupied a hill to the North East of the City, after which they were to move round the walls, out of ginjal range, and threaten the North gate. Should the Naval Brigade and 49th meet with opposition, the 26th were placed in reserve and were directed to move with and protect the guns.

A few minutes placed the Naval Brigade on the walls unopposed, and the whole promptly formed on the ramparts. The Royal Irish meanwhile dispersed the enemy in their fronts and rapidly moved on the North gate: I accompanied the 49th, but finding that the bridge over the canal, close to the South gate, was destroyed, and that it would take some time to replace it, the corps passed along a canal under the walls, and I directed the Naval Brigade to move parallel with it upon the ramparts. The whole force thus soon arrived at the place of assembly, the North gate.

The City of Tsekee is surrounded on three sides with precipitous hills, and the North gate is on a low spur of one of these hills which terminates in an eminence with the walls. At the North Western extremity of a range of high hills, being a branch of the mountains that skirt the coast, are the Segao or Siguen hills on which were the encampments: both were of considerable extent, and the natural difficulties of the position strengthened by abatis. These camps which as well as the summits of the hills beyond them, were thickly occupied, were within long range of the walls, the intervening space being a tract of paddy fields with a few scattered houses. I at once perceived that the position was faulty, as the hills on our right commanded their left, while their left commanded their right, and I made my dispositions accordingly. The 18th with a Rifle Company 36th M. N. I., were ordered to move up a ravine and occupy a hill to the left of the position. The Naval Brigade was instructed to move under the walls, and occupy two rather large buildings in front of the right encampment, making a lodgement under cover ready to rush forward, when the 18th should reach the summit and turn the enemy's left. With the 49th I proposed to attack at the same moment the largest encampment in my front, my great object being to make a simultaneous attack with the three columns pushing the 18th down in rear, while the Naval Brigade should cut off all communication with the City. So rapid were our movements that only one gun could be brought up, notwithstanding the praiseworthy exertions of Lieutenant Colonel Montgomerie, who dashed his guns into the canal and entered the City by a water gate. This gun was ably brought up and did good execution under the direction of Captain Moore, of the Madras Artillery, who with his party merits great praise for the extraordinary exertions in dragging it through paddy fields and across canals.

The steepness of the mountain gorge, by which the Royal Irish and Rifles ascended notwithstanding the enthusiasm of their advance, occupied more time in surmounting than I anticipated; and finding that the Naval Brigade might probably suffer more by the delay than in an immediate attack, and that the enemy appeared to gain confidence by this delay, I ordered the advance to be sounded, when the 49th, with their accustomed spirit, rushed up the hill, overcoming all opposition, and crowned its height within a few minutes, driving every thing before them. From this height it afforded me no small satisfaction to witness the spirited rush of the advance of the Marine Brigade led by their gallant chief (I am persuaded Sir William Parker will excuse this expression of my admiration) who was ably supported by Captain Bouchier, Commanding the Naval Brigade; Captain Richards of H. M. Ship Cornwallis, and Captain Watson of H. M. Ship Modeste, Commanding the Seamen Battalion. The whole Brigade soon reached the summit, carrying the enemy's works. At the moment when the Admiral had nearly gained the height, I perceived a large body of Chinese ascending the back of the hill which he was attacking, apparently ignorant of the conjoint attack, and I directed Major Gough, Deputy Quarter Master General, to push forward with the Grenadiers of the 49th, supported by a Battalion Company, to cut off their retreat. The carnage at the foot of this hill was extraordinarily great: the 49th in rear and the Naval Brigade in front almost annihilated this body, while the remainder of the 49th pressed the retiring enemy (I cannot say his columns) as the whole plain was covered with the dispersed and flying foe. The 18th and Rifles finding that they were too late to participate in the attack on the encampments, rapidly dashed into the plain and cut off the Chinese from their only safe retreat on the Changki pass, killing numbers; and one Company under Lieutenant Bernard followed up the pursuit for several miles towards Yuyaun. The 26th Cameronians, having left one company to protect the guns, pressed forward into the plain, and joined in the pursuit. It was 8 o'clock before the force re-assembled, when we occupied the enemy's encampment where the men found ample bedding and comforts.

Sir William Parker has brought to my notice, in addition to the Captains of the Navy I have already named, the spirited conduct of Lieut. Charles E. Tennant, (Flag Lieut.); Lieut. George Elliott, (slightly wounded); Mr. George H. Hodgson, Mate, (also slightly wounded in a personal rencontre with a Chinese); Mr. Wm. Bowden, Volunteer 1st class, and Mr. Hy. D. C. Cunningham, Secretary's Clerk, all of H. M. Ship Cornwallis; also of Lieutenant Harriott, Royal Marines of H. M.'s Ship Blonde. The Admiral also noticed (and it came under my own observation) the judicious and well directed fire of rockets by a party under Lieutenant James Fitzjames and Mr. Charles Keates Jackson, Mate, both of H. M.'s Ship Cornwallis. These Officers accompanied Sir William Parker with the advance. Lieutenant A. J. B. Hambly, of the Royal Marines, was severely wounded at the head of his company in the advance to the hill.

I cannot too strongly express my entire approbation of the enthusiastic manner in which the whole force maintained their character. Our loss, under Divine protection, was wonderfully small, but the enemy's troops stood well and disputed the hills until in many instances our Officers and men came into personal contact with them.

The conduct of the 49th came more under my personal observation, and I witnessed with great satisfaction the zealous exertions of Captain Reignolds (wounded); Lieutenant and Adjutant Browne; Lieutenants Ramsay and Mitchell of the Grenadier Company; Lieutenant Lane (whose left arm was amputated on the field) and Lieutenant Montgomery (severely wounded in the thigh.) I must also mention with much approbation the conduct of Brevet Captain Balfour, of the Madras Artillery. I almost feel it invidious to name these Officers when I am conscious that every individual zealously did his duty; but as their conduct came under my own eye, I consider it a duty to express my sense of approval.

The exact strength of the enemy I can hardly estimate, as various accounts give it at from 7 to 10,000 men. I conceive it to have been about 8,000 men: they were the elite of the Chinese army, including 500 of the Imperial body guard, remarkably fine men, the Kansuh troops from the frontiers of Turkistan, a strong and muscular race accustomed to border warfare and reputed by the Chinese invincible, and the Shanse troops, for whose arrival Yih-King gave out that he had delayed his attack. Their loss must have been very great, not less than a thousand were killed upon the field or in the pursuit and drowned in the canals; a great proportion of Mandarins fell. These troops not having before met the English, apprehended, I presume, that we should give no quarter; and although the Officers and men showed great forbearance, calling to the Chinese to surrender, very few prisoners were taken. We have, however, three Mandarins, two from Kansuh, and one a Lieutenant of the Imperial body guard.

Fatigue parties from the several corps, together with the available native followers, were occupied in collecting guns, ginja's, and matchlocks left in camp or thrown away during the flight, until 12 o'clock on the 16th, when I set fire to the encampments, and to the several houses that the Chinese had occupied as arsenals. At daylight in the morning I had sent into the town to open the grain magazines to the populace, which eagerly flocked to them, and upon visiting them next morning, I found they had been completely emptied. From these and other causes I could not commence my march before half past twelve o'clock, when the column moved for the Changki pass, which I determined to carry, in order to destroy this, as I understood, formidable position, and capture the treasure chest. After a rapid march of three hours we reached the base of the hills under this pass. The position appeared remarkably strong, indeed, almost impracticable from the front, as the hills are lofty and exceedingly steep and the summits of the ridges were intrenched strongly. But here again as at Segaoon, I perceived that the position could be turned, and I at once directed the Royal Irish to ascend the hills on the left of the position, while I moved with the 26th Cameronians, and 49th, supported by the Naval Brigade, and occupied a wooded spur which led up direct to the left of the encampment. On reaching the summit of this spur, I found that the enemy had retreated, taking with him his guns, and I regret to say, his treasure; but a considerable quantity of good bread was discovered, also some ammunition. We halted for a couple of hours, and as there was not sufficient cover for all the troops, the works were set fire to, together with the magazine and a large Joss house where the Mandarins resided. The column returned to Tsekee, which we did not reach until nine o'clock that night; all the villages in the neighbourhood of our route were apparently deserted by the inhabitants; but I am happy to say, in no one instance was a house entered on our line of march, along which no trace was left betokening a movement of troops through a hostile country. Indeed, with the exception of a very few killed in houses where the Chinese troops sought refuge the preceding day, I did not see amid the slain one individual that was not habited as a soldier, which, as the peasantry were in many instances intermingled with the fugitives, goes far to shew the forbearance and discrimination of our men even in the heat of pursuit.

On the 17th I returned with the whole force to Ningpo, with the exception of two companies of the 26th, which I sent under Captain Strange, accompanied by Captain Pears, direct to Chinhae, with a view to ascertain the fact of a canal communication between that place and Tsekee and to clear the country of any straggling parties of the enemy. This duty was satisfactorily performed, and the detachment rejoined me here on the 18th.

Permit me now to bring to your Lordship's favorable notice the several Officers Commanding Corps who were most zealous in executing and even in anticipating my wishes, viz., Captain Bouchier Commanding the Naval Brigade; Lieut. Colonel Morris, Commanding 49th Regiment; Lieutenant Colonel Pratt, Commanding 26th Regiment; Major Tomlinson, Commanding 18th Regiment; Captain Watson, R.N., Commanding the Seamen; Captain Uniacke, Commanding Royal Marines; and Captain Simpson, Commanding Rifles 36th Madras Native Infantry.

From Lieutenant Colonel Montgomerie, Commanding the Artillery, and Captain Pears, Commanding Engineer, I received the most zealous support.

I am greatly indebted to Lieutenant Colonel Mountain, Deputy Adjutant General, and Major Gough, Deputy Quarter Master General, for their valuable assistance; and I feel much obliged to Lieutenant Colonel Hawkins, Deputy Commissary General, and Major Moore, Deputy Judge Advocate General, who accompanied me and acted as my personal Staff. Captain Whittingham, my Aid-de-Camp, having been sent to convey my wishes to Sir William Parker, ascended the hill with His Excellency, who speaks most favorably of his exertions.

I cannot too strongly convey my approbation of the zealous exertions of Doctor French, the Superintending Surgeon.

I send this despatch by Lieutenant Montgomery, 49th, who, I am sorry to say, will not, from his wound, be fit for service for a considerable time; he is a most gallant Officer.

FORT WILLIAM,

SECRET DEPARTMENT, 24TH JUNE, 1842.

The Honorable the President in Council is pleased to direct the publication of the following copy of a Notification by order of the Right Honorable the Governor General, with copy of the Despatch from Major General W. Nott, Commanding the British Force at Candahar, therein mentioned.

NOTIFICATION.

SECRET DEPARTMENT, ALLAHABAD, 11TH JUNE, 1842.

The Right Honorable the Governor General of India is pleased to direct the publication of the annexed copies of despatches from Major General Nott, Commanding the British Force at Candahar.

By order of the Governor General,

T. H. MADDOCK,

Secretary to the Govt. of India,

with the Governor General.

From Major General W. Nott,

Commanding at Candahar,

To T. H. MADDOCK, Esq.,

Secy. to the Govt. of India, Calcutta.

Candahar, 12th March, 1842.

SIR,

I have the honor to acquaint you, for the information of the Right Honorable the Governor General of India, that during the month of February, considerable numbers of the rebel forces under the command of Prince Suftur Jung and other Afghan Chiefs assembled in the vicinity of Candahar, plundering the villages, and by every possible means urging the inhabitants to join in an attack upon the British troops. In the beginning of the present month, the enemy approached close to the City of Candahar.

I made the necessary arrangements for the safety of the City, and leaving a garrison of about 2,600 men in it, I, on the 7th instant, moved with the remainder of my force against the enemy. They retired as I advanced; they were driven first across the river Turnuk, and then across the Urghundab. They would not allow our Infantry to come in contact with them. On the 9th, we got near enough to open our guns upon them with great effect; they were soon broken and fled; my want of good Cavalry saved them from being totally destroyed; they were dispersed in every direction.

During a march of five days, opposed to 12,000 of the enemy, who had upwards of 6,000 well mounted Cavalry, continually moving round our column, not a Camel was taken or a particle of baggage lost. The troops marched without tents, both Officers and men, and the conduct of my Artillery and Infantry was excellent.

* I think this dispersion of the rebel force will have the best effect, as it will convince the inhabitants that the Chiefs cannot face us in the field with any chance of success. I am now doing all in my power to conciliate the villagers, and to induce them to return to the cultivation of their lands, and to live in peace under the assurance of protection.

During my absence, a strong detachment of the enemy made an attempt on the City, and succeeded in burning one of the gates, but they were repulsed with great loss by the gallantry of the troops in garrison, under the command of Major Lane, of the 2d Regt. N. I., whose report shall be forwarded for the information of Government by the first opportunity.

I am, &c.

SIR,

With reference to the concluding paragraph of my letter to your address under date the 12th instant, I have now the honor of forwarding to you Major Lane's report of an attack made on one of the City gates of Candahar, which was most gallantly repulsed by the Bengal Sepoys, small details from H. M.'s 40th Regiment and from the 4th Company 2d Battalion of Artillery.

Candahar, 12th March, 1842

SIR,

For the information of Major General Nott, commanding, I have the honor to report the following particulars of an attack made upon Candahar on the night of the 10th instant.

During the forenoon of the above date, large bodies of the enemy, Horse and Foot, were observed assembling from all quarters, taking up a position near old Candahar and the adjoining villages; and in the course of the day their numbers rapidly increased, parties from the main body moving round and establishing themselves in front of the Shikarpore gate. As their object was evidently to attack the garrison, the Political Agent directed the inhabitants to shut their shops and remain within their houses, and precautions were taken to secure the gates by piling bags of grain inside.

About 8 o'clock P. M. a desperate attack was made upon the Herat gate, and owing to the darkness of the night some combustibles were placed near it and ignited unperceived, and in a few minutes the gate was in flames. I immediately ordered a party of 100 Rank and File from the 2d Regiment, and a Company from the Shah's 1st Infantry, to support the guard at the gate, and two guns were also placed in position commanding the entrance.

Dense masses of the enemy had now collected at this point keeping up an incessant and heavy fire, which was returned with great effect from the ramparts, but so reckless and daring were the assailants that notwithstanding the fearful havoc among them, eight or ten men actually forced their way, by tearing down the burning fragments of the gate, and scrambling over the bags of grain; these were instantly shot, and their fate, together with the galling fire from the walls, dismayed the attacking party, who retired about midnight after four hours resolute fighting.

Another attack took place at the Shikarpore gate about 9 P. M., and a similar attempt was made to fire it, which, however, failed, and the assailants were driven back; a small party also approached the Cabool gate, but the garrison being every where on the alert, the enemy was compelled to retire about 1 o'clock A. M. of the 11th, and when the day broke not a soul was visible.

The guards over the several gates were so completely sheltered, that not a single casualty occurred, whilst the well-directed and destructive fire which was maintained for nearly four hours must have done great execution. Upwards of 50 dead bodies were found in and near the Herat gate, and from the determined assault of the enemy who came close up to the walls, their loss must have been immense; report estimates it at 1,000 killed and wounded, and I am informed by Major Rawlinson, Political Agent, that Prince Suftur Jung, Meerza Ahmed, and other Sirdars were present encouraging the assailants.

A considerable quantity of grain was unavoidably destroyed at the Herat gate, but as it presented a strong barrier, I trust the sacrifice will be considered unimportant. This gate has been built up, and the others have been temporarily barricaded with grain bags.

Before concluding my report, I would beg to acknowledge the valuable assistance rendered me on this occasion by Major Rawlinson, Political Agent, and Captain Ripley, Fort Adjutant. The exertions of every Officer and Soldier in garrison were unremitting, and it affords me infinite pleasure to bear testimony to the admirable conduct of all parties during the attack.

Candahar, 28th March, 1842.

SIR,

Having deemed it desirable to detach a Brigade under the command of Lieutenant Colonel Wymer, for the double purpose of foraging, and giving protection to the numerous villages along the left bank of the Urghundab river against the marauding system adopted by the rebel army, commanded by Prince Suftur Jung and other Afghan Chiefs, I have now the honor to forward to you, for the information of the Right Hon'ble the Governor General of India, a report from that Officer of an attack made on his detachment, and of the complete defeat of the enemy. I have ascertained that their loss was great, and that several of their Chiefs were killed and wounded, while our loss was comparatively trifling.

On my arrival on the field I was pleased with the judicious arrangements made by Lieutenant Colonel Wymer; and the cool and determined manner in which he opposed the enemy and protected his convoy did credit to our arms, and I beg leave to bring him under the favorable notice of Government.

The enemy were finally driven across the Urghundab in the greatest confusion and with very considerable loss. The Artillery and Infantry distinguished themselves.

I have, &c.

Camp, Baba Wullee, 27th March, 1842.

SIR,

I have the honor to report for the information of Major General Nott, Commanding at Candahar, that in obedience to his instructions, I marched from that place with the force noted in the margin on the morning of the 25th instant, with the intention of foraging for the Cavalry and cattle at the village of Seikhchulah; but on receiving a report from Captain Dallas, that the country thereabouts had recently been foraged over, and the water turned off by the enemy, he suggested the advantage to be derived by a move upon Baba Wullee, which was adopted. On reaching that place I sighted the rebel camp on the opposite side of the Urghundab, distant about four miles, and large bodies of Cavalry grazing their horses between it and the river. I continued my march to the spot selected for my encampment, and shortly after reaching it at $\frac{1}{2}$ past 10, or 11, a large body of the enemy's Cavalry was observed forming and occupying the pass in my rear; on which I reinforced the rear guard with two guns and a wing of the 38th N. I., placing the convoy under the hills in the rear and protecting its front and flanks with the force at my disposal, which had hardly been effected, when finding the force above mentioned fast increasing, I deemed it highly necessary to move back for their dispersion taking with me two Horse-artillery guns under Lieutenant Turner, the 38th Regiment, and a party of Skinner's Horse under Lieutenant Travers, detaching two Companies 38th Regiment to drive the enemy from the tops of some low hills they had crowned with horsemen on my left, which was speedily done, and the well directed fire from Lieutenant Turner's guns soon drove in the body of the enemy collected on the Pass, commanded, I am told, by Salloo Khan and Taj Mahomed, who moved round to join the party then threatening the right flank of the convoy. On this I retraced my steps and rejoined the convoy, which had been left under Lieutenant Colonel McLaren's charge during my absence, and who had dislodged a third body of the enemy from the enclosed gardens and villages in his front with a part of the 16th Regiment. On my reaching the convoy, I directed Captain Macan, Commanding the Shah's 2d Regiment, to move his corps, supported by two guns and the half of Leeson's Horse under Ensign Chamberlain against the party on the right flank, which movement had been partly executed when the force under the Major General's personal command arrived to my support, at the time when the party of Cavalry under Ensign Chamberlain received a partial check from an overpowering body of the enemy, and that Officer was severely wounded, and Lieutenant Travers slightly, who acted in concert with him.

Enclosed I have the honor to forward a return of the killed and wounded on the occasion, and to express my entire approbation of the conduct of all Officers and men engaged in the action.

I trust I may be permitted to bring to the Major General's notice the admirable practice of the Artillery under Lieutenant Turner's guidance, every shot from which told with beautiful effect upon the dense masses of the enemy.

To Lieutenant Waterfield, Adjutant 38th Regiment, who acted as my personal Staff on the occasion, I am much indebted for the very able manner in which he conducted the various duties assigned him.

I have, &c.

The Right Honorable the Governor General is pleased to direct the publication of the annexed copy of a Despatch from Lieutenant General Sir Hugh Gough, K. C. B., Commanding the Land Forces in China, as affording honorable testimony to the services of the Bengal Volunteers in that country.

Head-Quarters, Ningpo, March 20th, 1842.

SIR,

I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter No. 1613, dated 1st November 1841, and to acquaint you, that I have authorized the Officer Commanding at Hong-kong, to embark the two companies of the Bengal Volunteers for Calcutta, as soon as he can, in communication with the Senior Naval Officer on the spot, obtain proper transport accommodation.

2. I beg to assure you, for the information of the Right Honorable the Governor General in Council, that I have consented with much regret to part with the Volunteers, and had their state of health been such in August last, as to admit of my bringing them with me to the Northward, I should have confidently anticipated the same advantage from the services of Major Mee and his fine detachment, that I derived at Canton.

3. Previous to my departure from Hong-kong, and subsequently to the wreck of their transport in the Typhoon of July last, I placed the detachment in Fort Victoria, on the Cowloon Peninsula, and flattered myself that from this time their general health began to amend: but, after my departure, consequent upon the determination of Her Majesty's Plenipotentiary not to occupy the Peninsula, they were removed to Hong-kong, and sickness has unhappily continued amongst them to such degree, that many have died, and nothing perhaps but an immediate return to their native country can save a large portion of the remainder.

4. Deeming it therefore expedient to let them go, I could not permit them to return without this renewed testimony on my part to their gallant services in the field, and to their uniformly good conduct in quarters.

I have, &c.,

and Comdg. Expedy. Land Force.

THE 25TH JANUARY, 1842.

NOTIFICATION.

Intelligence having been received of Her Majesty the Queen having been safely delivered on the morning of the 9th November, of a Prince and Heir to the Throne of England, the Right Honorable the Governor General of India in Council, is pleased to direct, that a Royal Salute be fired from the Ramparts of Fort William at 6 A. M. on the morning of to-morrow, the 26th Instant, and that a feu de joie be fired by the Troops of the Garrison, in Honor of this important and happy event.

MONDAY EVENING, JANUARY 31, 1842.

NOTIFICATION.

FORT WILLIAM,
SECRET DEPARTMENT,
THE 31ST JANUARY, 1842.

Intelligence having been received which leaves no room to doubt that, after the British Force at Cabool had maintained its position against overpowering numbers of Insurgents for more than six weeks, the Officer Commanding had judged it necessary, in consequence of a failure of Provisions, to agree to a convention with the enemy, and to retire, in reliance on the faith of that convention, towards Jellalabad, when the Troops exposed to the worst rigors of cold and privation in the mountain defiles, and harassed by treacherous attacks, suffered extreme disaster,—the Governor General in Council deems it proper to notify, that the most active measures have been adopted, and will be steadfastly prosecuted, for expediting powerful reinforcements to the Affghan Frontier, and for assisting such operations as may be required in that quarter for the maintenance of the honor and interests of the British Government.

The ample Military means at the disposal of the British Government will be strenuously applied to these objects, so as at once to support external operations, and to ensure efficient protection to its subjects and allies.

A faithless enemy, stained by the foul crime of assassination, has, through a failure of supplies, followed by consummate treachery, been able to overcome a body of British Troops, in a country removed, by distance and difficulties of season, from the possibility of succour. But the Governor General in Council, while he most deeply laments the loss of brave Officers and men, regards this partial reverse only as a new occasion for displaying the stability and vigor of the British Power, and the admirable spirit and valor of the British Indian Army.

By order of the Right Hon'ble the Governor General of India in Council,

T. H. MADDOCK,

Secy. to the Govt. of India.

FORT WILLIAM, SECRET DEPARTMENT,
THE 4TH APRIL, 1842.

The following copy of a Despatch from Lieutenant Colonel Palmer, Commanding at Ghuznee, to the address of the Officer Commanding at Jelalabad, dated the 1st March 1842, is published for general information by order of the Governor General in Council.

Ghuzni, 1st March, 1842.

To Officer Commanding at Jelalabad.

SIR,—It is with much concern I acquaint you that from want of water and by an overpowering force under cover and within 50 yards of us in the City, I have been compelled to enter into terms to evacuate the Citadel and Fort, within six days. The Garrison is to occupy the N. E. corner of the Town. The Garrison is exhausted by fatigue and constant duty, and the men have suffered greatly from cold, the thermometer having been 14 below Zero. The terms are honorable treatment and safety whilst here and on the march to Cabool, solemnly sworn to by the Chiefs. In capitulating, I have only acted up to the orders of Major Pottinger and General Elphinstone, who directed me, in an official letter, to evacuate the Citadel and City on the arrival of Roohilla Khan, son of Ameenoolah Khan, Sirdar of Logur. This Chief arrived and promised to escort us in safety to Cabool. Amoon Shumsoodeen Khan, nephew of Dost Mahomed Khan, has also arrived as Governor of Ghuzni, and, as Political Agent, I received instructions to march immediately on the arrival for Cabool, from the late Sir W. Macnaghten, Bart. Abandoned as this Garrison has been in the very centre of the enemy's country, cut off from all communication with any quarter, and without a sufficiency of water even at this season, with 200 men detached to hold an outpost which is destitute of water, and must have fallen in 48 hours, nothing but capitulation remained. From the outpost falling into the hands of the enemy, they would command our only Well and Cong. Fort, the whole Garrison would have been destroyed in a few days. The bearer has received only subsistence on the road, and is to receive a handsome reward on delivering this letter. We have upwards of 100 sick and wounded and 137 casualties. The Officers, including Captain Burnett, 54th, and Lieutenant Crawford, S. S. Force, are all well.

I have, &c.,

Pol. Agent, Commg. at Ghuzni.

P. S. There is great reason to fear for our safety as there are some thousands of Ghazis in the city, whom the Chiefs cannot disperse. The snow is still deep. No tidings from the Southward, but report says the Troops hold the City of Kandahar, and are daily fighting.

The Governor General in Council has directed that the Commander in Chief will submit the conduct of Lieut.-Colonel Palmer, in surrendering the Citadel of Ghuznee, to the judgment of a Court Martial, at the earliest period at which such Court can be duly assembled.

The Governor General in Council has already (on the 28th of January last,) directed that a full Military Enquiry shall be made into all the circumstances connected with the direction and conduct of the Troops at Cabool, at the earliest period at which such an Enquiry may be practicable.

The Governor General in Council has now directed that the conduct of Major General Elphinstone, in Affghanistan, shall be submitted to the judgment of a Court Martial, at the earliest period at which such Court can be duly assembled.

The Governor General in Council will further direct that a full Enquiry shall likewise be made into the conduct of all the Political Functionaries employed at Cabool, at the earliest possible period after he shall be in possession of certain material documents of which he has already ordered the immediate transmission to Government.

Jellalabad, 12th March, 1842.

TO CAPTAIN PONSONBY,

Assist. Adjutant General.

SIR,—Do me the favor to acquaint Major General Pollock, C. B., that since I last addressed you, the enemy have, in furtherance of their plan of establishing a vigorous blockade, daily insulted the place by throwing swarms of skirmishers into the ravines and hollows round the walls and behind the remains of mud Forts, which are so extensive, that no industry has enabled us wholly to clear them away. It has been their practice to plant their standards in conspicuous points of the circumference thus occupied, and to keep up a constant fire of Musquetry upon our Parapets. I have resisted these attempts, by the fire from Batteries, and the occasional aim from best marksmen. We have sustained few casualties, and those of the enemy have, I suspect, been uniformly serious. On the 10th instant, the covert advance of the Affghans was particularly persevering against our Northern face; towards evening our spies brought us information that the enemy were driving a mine in this direction, and tho' I entertained great doubts of the correctness of this statement, I thought it prudent to ascertain the truth by a sortie; on the morning of the 11th I placed under the orders of Lt. Col. Dennie, 300 men of the 13th, 300 of the 35th, and 200 of the Corps of Sappers, having at the same time directed Captain [redacted] to move on with the Cavalry into the plain to the Southward, and endeavour to fix the attention of the enemy in that direction. The Lieutenant Colonel sallied out by the Peshawur gate a little after day-break, and his column swept steadily round into the low ground, to the northward. Contrary to expectation this was found to be abandoned; but a strong picquet of the enemy's foot occupied a salient point on a rising ground, which commanded it; from this they were driven in a most spirited manner by Captain Broadfoot at the head of the detachment of Sappers and Miners, and he pursued the retreating enemy into and beyond a Tower and Garden wall, of which he took and kept possession. The 35th, under Captain Seaton, and Captain Wilkinson's Company of the 13th, were then established Skirmishers around the ruins of old Forts, whilst the remainder of the 13th were held in reserve. The Cavalry appeared at the same moment and supported the left flank of our line of occupation: an examination of the ground proved that neither shaft nor gallery had been commenced, and I therefore directed the Troops to withdraw. The whole camp of Mahomed Akbar was, by this time, in full alert, and heavy masses of Cavalry and a cloud of Foot were pressing forward towards our Skirmishers. Our detachment, however, retired in the most perfect order, and their fire, and that of our guns and mortars from the walls, kept the Affghans in check in the most satisfactory manner—on our extreme right, their horse made an attempt to ride in upon Captain Broadfoot's party, but a volley from the Sappers and Miners brought them to a halt in evident discomfiture. Our loss in wounded was very trifling.

SECRET DEPARTMENT,

BENARES,

THE 21ST APRIL, 1842.

The Governor General feels assured that every subject of the British Government will peruse with the deepest interest and satisfaction, the report he now communicates of the entire defeat of the Afghan Troops, under Mahomed Akbar Khan, by the Garrison of Jellalabad.

That illustrious Garrison, which, by its constancy in enduring privation, and by its valour in action, has already obtained for itself the sympathy and respect of every true Soldier, has now, sallying forth from its walls, under the command of its gallant leader, Major General Sir Robert Sale, thoroughly beaten in open field an enemy of more than three times its numbers, taken the Standards of their boasted Cavalry, destroyed their Camp, and re-captured four Guns, which, under circumstances which can never again occur, had during the last winter fallen into their hands.

The Governor General cordially congratulates the army upon the return of victory to its ranks. He is convinced that there, as in all former times, it will be found, while, as at Jellalabad the European and Native Troops mutually supporting each other, and evincing equal discipline and valour, are led into action by Officers in whom they justly confide.

The Governor General directs that the substance of this Notification and of Major General Sir Robert Sale's report be carefully made known to all the Troops, and that a salute of 21 guns be fired at every principal Station of the Army.

Jullalabad, April 7th, 1842.

SIR,

Information was on the evening of the 5th instant brought into this place, in the most positive and circumstantial terms from spies in the enemy's Camp, to the effect that the Force under Major General Pollock, C. B., had met with reverse in the Khyber, and retraced its steps towards Peshawur, and about 10 p. m. on the 6th a feu de-joie and salute of artillery was fired by Mahumud Akbar, which was said to be in honor of the same event. It was on the same day and through similar channels announced to me that the Afghans were sending reinforcements to aid in defending the Frontier Passes. Although I could not wholly depend upon these statements, which were improbable in themselves, and accompanied by counter reports of another revolution at Cabool, which was assigned by some as the cause of the rejoicing of the defeat of the Afghans in Khyber, and by an account of the intended and even actual retreat of the Sirdar to-day; however I came, on a full consideration of the various circumstances and rumours, to the resolution of anticipating the last mentioned event by a general attack on the Afghan Camp, in the hopes of relieving this place from blockade, and facilitating General Pollock's advance. I accordingly gave directions to form three columns of Infantry. The centre consisting of H. M.'s 13th Light Infantry, 500 Rank and File under Colonel Dennie, C. B. The left of the 35th N. I., 510 Rank and File under Lieutenant Colonel Monteith, C. B. The right of a Company of the 13th Light Infantry, another of the 35th N. I. and the detachment of Sappers under Lieutenant Orr, (the severity of Captain Broadfoot's wound still rendering him non-effective) the whole 360 strong, commanded by Captain Havelock, 13th Light Infantry. These were to be supported by the fire of the guns of No. 6, Light Field Battery, under Captain Abbott, to which Captain Backhouse, Shah Shoojah's Artillery, was also attached, and by the whole of my small Cavalry force under Captain Oldfield and Lieutenant Mayne. The troops issued from the Cabul and Peshawur Gates at daylight this morning. So far from the Sirdar having made any dispositions to avoid the encounter, his whole force (not falling short in all of 6000 men) was formed in order of battle for the defence of his Camp, its right resting on a Fort, and its left on the Cabul river, and even the ruined walls within 800 yards of the place, recently repaired, were filled with Ghilzie marksmen, evidently prepared for a stout resistance. The attack was led by the Skirmishers in column, under Captain Havelock, which drove the enemy in the most satisfactory manner from the extreme left of his advanced line of walls, which it pierced at once, and proceeded to advance into the plain, whilst the central column directed its efforts against a square post, the defence of which was obstinately maintained.

With the deepest regret I have to mention that, whilst nobly leading his Regiment to the assault, Colonel Dennie, C. B., of the 13th Light Infantry, received a shot through the body, which shortly after proved fatal. The rear of this work being gained by passing to its left, I gave orders for a combined attack on the enemy's camp. It was in every way brilliant and successful. The Artillery advanced at the gallop, and directed a heavy fire on the Afghan centre, whilst two of the columns of Infantry penetrated his line at the same point, and the third drove his left back from his support on the river, into the stream of which some of his Horse and Foot were forced. The Afghans made repeated attempts to check our advance by a smart fire of musquetry, and throwing forward heavy bodies of horse, which twice closely threatened the Troops under Captain Havelock, and by opening against us 3 Guns from a Battery, screened by Garden Wall, and said to have been served under the personal superintendence of the Sirdar; but in a short time they were dislodged from every point of their position, their Cannon taken, and their Camp involved in a general conflagration. The battle was over, and the enemy in full retreat in the direction of Lughman by about 7 A. M. We have made ourselves masters of 2 Cavalry Standards, recaptured 4 Guns, lost by the Cabool and Gundamuck Forces, the restoration of which to our Government is viewed by the Force with much honest exultation, and destroyed the whole of the Enemy's Tents. In short, the defeat of Mahomud Akbar by the force which he boasted of blockading, has been, in open field, complete and signal.

The fall of an Officer so distinguished as Colonel Dennie will be felt as a public calamity. Lamenting it in every way, I must share with his country, his Regiment, and his friends, in the consolation afforded by the reflection that he was killed most gallantly performing his duty.

I have to express my entire satisfaction with the conduct on this occasion of Lieutenant Colonel Monteith, C. B., Commanding one of the Infantry Columns under my own eye, and of Captain Wilkinson, on whom the charge of the other devolved on the death of his Lieutenant Colonel. Of Captain Oldfield and Lieutenant Mayne, who led the Cavalry, and of Captains Abbott and Backhouse and Lieutenant Dawes of the Artillery. The able and judicious manner in which Captain Havelock moved the force under his command, which acted on a line so distant as to render its manœuvres independent of my immediate control, demands my particular and separate commendation. My acknowledgments are also especially due to Captain Wade, my Brigade Major, whose exertions were on this day, as they have ever been, most meritorious. To Major Frazer of the Light Cavalry, who acted as my A. D. C., and to Captain Mainwaring, Commissariat Officer with the force, who was present in and active on the field. Captain Macgregor, Political Agent, handsomely offered his services with No. 6, Light Field Battery, and was most useful in serving the Guns.

I enclose Returns of Killed and Wounded and of Ordnance captured. Lieutenant and Adjutant Wood of H. M. 13th Light Infantry, made a dash at one of the Enemy, and in cutting him down his charger was so severely wounded as to have been since destroyed, Captain Havelock reports in the most favorable manner, the gallant conduct of Lieutenant Cox, H. M.'s 13th Light Infantry, who was the first to seize the Enemy's Guns of the party which captured them.

FORT WILLIAM,
POLITICAL DEPARTMENT,

5TH MAY, 1842.

The Hon'ble the President in Council is pleased to direct that the following Order by the Right Hon'ble the Governor General of India be published for general information.

G. A. BUSHBY,
Offy. Secy. to the Govt. of India.

GENERAL ORDER BY THE RIGHT HONORABLE THE GOVERNOR GENERAL
OF INDIA.

HEAD QUARTERS, ALLAHABAD,

APRIL 30TH, 1842.

The Governor General has received a report from Major General Pollock, C. B. dated the 16th instant, announcing his arrival at Jelalabad.

The Major General has thus carried into effect the orders of the Government in a manner which entitles him to the highest approbation.

Receiving the command of the Army at Peshawar under circumstances of peculiar difficulty, he has in the midst of new and unforeseen embarrassments and disappointments, preserved a firm mind, and justly relying upon his own judgment he has at last, with equal discretion and decision, accomplished the object he was directed to effect.

The Governor General requests Major Pollock to accept his acknowledgements of the good service he has thus rendered to the Government of India, and begs he will communicate to the gallant Officers and troops under his command the entire satisfaction with which their conduct has been regarded on this occasion.

The Governor General has already, in communicating the despatch from Major General Sir Robert Sale, K. C. B., dated the 7th instant, expressed his high sense of the services of that Officer and of the garrison of Jelalabad, terminating on that day by a decisive victory, which would have left nothing to desire had Colonel Darnley survived to enjoy it.

The garrison of Jelalabad having on that day achieved its safety by its own prowess, and being now reunited to the Army by the movements of the force under the command of Major General Pollock, C. B., it remains only for the Governor General to testify his opinion of the just claims of that garrison to the gratitude of the Government and of their country.

The Governor General is pleased to direct that the second company of the sixth Battalion of Artillery shall bear upon its appointments, and the fifth regiment of Light Cavalry upon its standards and appointments, and the thirty-fifth regiment of Native Infantry upon its colors and appointments, a mural crown superscribed "Jelalabad," as a memorial of the fortitude, perseverance and enterprise evinced by those several corps during the blockade of Jelalabad.

The Governor General is likewise pleased, in conformity with the recommendation of his Excellency the Commander in Chief, to direct that "in order to give additional and lasting honors to the 35th Native Infantry, whilst it benefits service generally, that corps shall hereafter be made a Light Infantry regiment, the duties of which it is already so well acquainted with, and has performed with so much zeal and spirit."

The Governor General is farther pleased to direct that a silver medal be made for every officer, non-commissioned officer, and private, European and native, who belonged to the Garrison of Jelalabad on the seventh of April, 1842, such medals to be all similar, and to bear on one side a mural crown superscribed "Jelalabad," and on the other side the words "April 7th, 1842."

The Government of India will present such medal to every officer, non-commissioned officer, and private, European and native, belonging to their service, and will request the home authorities to lay before her Majesty their most humble prayer that her Majesty will be graciously pleased to permit the Major-General Commanding and the officers, non-commissioned officers, and privates in her Majesty's service, who formed part of the Garrison of Jelalabad, to receive and wear a medal similar to that which will be so presented to their brothers in arms.

The Governor General, taking into consideration the many great privations to which the troops composing the garrison of Jelalabad were exposed during the blockade of that place, and the noble fortitude with which all such privations were borne, as well as the various losses the troops sustained, is pleased to direct that a donation of six months' batta be made to all the officers, non-commissioned officers, and privates, European and native, who composed the garrison of Jelalabad on the 7th of April, 1842.

The Governor General will request his Excellency the Commander in Chief of the Army to give instructions in due time that the several corps composing the garrison of Jelalabad may, on their return to India, be received at all the stations on their route to their cantonments, by all the troops at such stations, in review order with presented arms.

By order of the Right Honorable the Governor General of India,

Signed—

Secretary of the Govt. of India,
